

Preamble	The Board of Trustees, as the governing authority for the Royal Ontario Museum (ROM) with powers vested in it by the Legislature of Ontario, is responsible for the institution, its policies, its operational continuity and well-being, and the various assets which it holds in trust for the people of Ontario, to whom it is ultimately accountable. Governance policies will guide trustees, other volunteers, employees, and others affiliated with the ROM who are responsible for any aspect of museum operation, management, or governance. Museums and their employees and volunteers have duties, responsibilities, and opportunities; from time to time, they encounter ethical dilemmas and conflicts which must be resolved, considering both the needs of the institution and the broader public interest. In this regard, the ROM will be guided by the Canadian Museum Association's Ethics Guidelines (2006).
Policy Mandate	The mandate of the ROM includes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The collection and exhibition of objects, documents, and books of any kind to illustrate and make known to the public the natural history of Ontario, Canada and the world; (b) The collection and exhibition of objects, documents, and books of any kind to illustrate and make known to the public the history of man in all ages; and (c) The promotion of education, teaching, research, public programs and publication in any or all fields referred to above.
Vision	To become a distinctly 21st century museum. The ROM will be known globally for expanding the boundaries of knowledge, innovation in presenting that knowledge, and public relevance within the intersecting worlds of art, culture, and nature. The ROM will be universally recognized as Canada's leading museum and as one of the foremost cultural institutions anywhere in the world.
Mission	To transform lives by helping people to understand the past, make sense of the present, and come together to shape a shared future. The ROM builds and shares global collections, creates knowledge, inspires learning, encourages gathering, and sparks exchange on topics within the intersecting worlds of art, culture, and nature that matter to people and communities.
Values	The ROM's core values are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Creativity – in our approach to challenges • Adaptability – in changing contexts • Respect – for our differences • Excellence – in all aspects of our work • Courage – to take risks and try new things • Collaboration – across boundaries • Accountability – for outcomes
Overarching Goals	Our Local Impact To dramatically increase our relevance to the people of Toronto and Ontario and become even more central to the life of our community. Our Global Impact To ascend to the top tier of leadership in the global museum field

Our Organizational Strengths

To transform our facility so that it welcomes and inspires all our visitors and delivers a distinctly 21st century museum experience.

To significantly build our talent base and financial strength commensurate with the needs of a great 21st century museum.

Strategic Objectives

Our strategies fall into three categories – Revolutionary, Evolutionary, and Enabling. Taken together, these interdependent strategies chart a course for realizing the ROM’s vision of leadership as a great 21st century museum.

The ROM’s Revolutionary Strategies

The ROM must think and act in fundamentally new ways. The Revolutionary strategies reflect major shifts in mindset for the ROM and opportunities to break new ground in the museum field on 21st century frontiers

- Establish the ROM as an undisputed focal point for cultural and community engagement.
- Build on our strengths encompassing art, culture, and nature and chart a new path for transdisciplinary practices.
- Lead the field by fully infusing digital thinking into a museum environment.
- Chart a new path for how museums in Canada can engage even more meaningfully with Indigenous communities.
- Launch the ROM Next Level Ideation Lab.

The ROM’s Evolutionary Strategies

The 21st century ROM must adapt its traditional strengths to align to its 21st century ambitions. Evolutionary strategies reflect the ways the ROM will re-shape existing resources and activities to bring the 21st century museum to life.

- Transform and revitalize the ROM’s physical campus to meet the needs of a great 21st century museum.
- Take a set of high-potential collection areas to a position of global leadership and renown.
- Strengthen and secure our curatorial capacity and enhance access to and stewardship of our collections.
- Infuse a visitor-centric mindset throughout the Museum.
- Further enhance the exhibition portfolio and refresh galleries.
- Facilitate sustained learning that meets the 21st century needs of students and families

The ROM’s Enabling Strategies

The 21st century ROM must develop the financial resources, talent, and plan to enable the success of our vision.

- Build and develop our talent
- Develop and implement the next major capital campaign
- Develop and implement a robust, dynamic, and detailed business plan

Work Environment Principles

The ROM embraces a working environment that recognizes and encourages employees and volunteers to demonstrate the ROM’s core values of Creativity, Adaptability, Courage, Collaboration, Respect, Accountability and Excellence. The ROM is committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace thereby supporting the health and wellbeing of all employees and volunteers.

In furtherance of creating such an environment, employees and volunteers (including trustees) will

- Treat others with respect, tact, and courtesy, both within the ROM and when representing the ROM.
- Use their skills and experiences for the benefit of the ROM.
- Keep confidential ROM information, which involves a matter of trust.
- Respect and protect ROM property and facilities, including records, and refrain from using them in a manner or for a purpose that may be contrary to the ROM's interests.

*Work
Environment
Principles*

In addition to these behaviours Managers are expected to:

- Use their knowledge, experience, abilities, and expertise to deliver on new strategies that help fulfil the ROM's Mission and Vision.
- Embrace and support change that helps create the strong human capital foundation needed to enable the ROM to become a 21st Century Museum.
- Be disciplined, focused and results driven.
- Provide positive, sensitive leadership that brings out the best in others and creates a positive culture of mutual respect.
- Value the importance of relationship building within and outside of the ROM.
- Provide clear expectations and effective delegation while encouraging competence, accountability and excellence in all aspects of work and organizational life.
- Create a positive, collaborative and safe work environment that encourages employees to take risks and try new things.
- Fully understand the ROM's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) strategies and work purposefully against racism in the workplace and in the ROM's public facing work.
- Be strategic, able to conceptualize a big picture view while also being able to manage the small details that matter to be successful.
- Promote a sense of shared purpose with management, employees, and volunteers.
- Respect and foster the professionalism of employees and volunteers.
- Routinely recognize and acknowledge achievements of employees and volunteers.
- Ensure that all applicable policies are communicated effectively and adhered to in daily operations.
- Ensure that the ROM, its departments, individual employees, and volunteers grow and develop professionally in a manner consistent with stated Values and Work Environment Principles.
- Use resources effectively and make decisions that are financially and ethically responsible in furtherance of the ROM's Mission and Objectives.
- Strive to produce and foster the production of outstanding and innovative programs, which exceed visitor expectations.

All employees and volunteers are expected to abide by the Board Policy – Ethics & Conduct and the Management Practice – Code of Conduct in the Workplace.
